PLACES EP

'Places', the second EP by Brussels-based artist Loumana, offers a captivating sonic journey that goes beyond pure musical expression. Through a delicate fusion of electronic and orchestral elements, Loumana explores the theme of self-discovery and the pursuit of a space that is uniquely one's own.

The EP unfolds as a poetic exploration of the desire to be somewhere else, a personal sanctuary.

Tracks like 'Ending Pleasure' and 'Le Louvre' serve as artistic canvases for Loumana to paint sonic landscapes inspired by the places he holds dear. The melodies carry you to destinations both real and imaginary, reflecting the universal quest for a space that feels as uniquely one's own.

Prepare for a mesmerising odyssey through Loumana's expressive soundscapes in 'Places'.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Loumana is a 25-year-old composer and live performer born in Burkina Faso. His musical exploration knows no bounds, as he delves into genres ranging from ambiante to hip hop. In recent years, he has dedicated his efforts to constructing live shows for various Belgian artists, including Blu Samu, Shaka Shams, Bart Kobain, and Athena.

Based in Brussels, Loumana is not only a composer but also actively involved in the local music scene. He hosts a monthly radio show on Bruzz Media and is a member of the DJ collective called "Adorable." His dynamic and multifaceted approach to music sets him apart as a truly unique and exciting artist to watch.
